Hi Judy,

I wanted to share some information with you before I call you...

I met with Sarah Haney in LV in March and the main discussion was:

- 1- Payment plan for this year and
- 2- renewal of license for the next 5 years

Please read below where none were issues until Sarah sent me an email asking for full payment a day before it was due. As you are aware, we have invested and continue to invest in the brand worldwide and a quarterly payment plan would work well for us and it is the plan we have agreed to. As you know, so far we have not received any profit on our investment and do not anticipate to make any this year either, a renewal letter for the next 5 years would be necessary as we are adding additional distributors around the world. I have attached a quick update on our national and international distribution. As you can see on the international side, we are in or about to distribute in about 65 countries and once the deal we have signed closes on the 16th of April, the count will increase to over 80 countries. The delays we have experienced has many facets including brand restrictions, government approvals and of course the BIG competition from Red Bull.

Again, I appreciate our relationship and looking forward to calling you shortly!

We'll issue the renewal documentation with quarterly payment schedule. As for the mixed cocktails, please remind me which countries you were interested in exploring? Also please provide sales forecasts for the category, by region. Thanks much.

Hi Sarah,

Is this April fool day joke? LOL...

In your last email you said okay for the quarterly payments and I was preparing the wish list for the renewal, what happened? I do foresee a problem with the $2 mil on the 1st. I tried to explain during our meeting that we need the cash to support our operations and distributors and volunteered to meet with Scott and Alex if necessary to explain and to have them be more supportive. As you also know that we have not made a profit and we continue to spend to promote the brand as it has not been easy. Please let me know of a good time to talk today?

Thanks Iehab. As for the payment schedule you'd requested for the upcoming license year, I'm afraid that I have bad news. Management has indicated that it will require all guarantees to be paid in full on their contractual due dates, which means that I can't offer you quarterly payments at this point. I'm sorry about this. Do you foresee issues remitting the $2m on April 1st?

As you may know, on April 26, 2011, an involuntary chapter 7 bankruptcy petition was filed against Play Beverages, LLC ("PlayBev") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Utah (Bankruptcy Case No. 11-26046). Although PlayBev is seeking dismissal, the outcome of PlayBev's motion is currently unknown.

Playboy Enterprises ("Playboy") believes that PlayBev is in breach of its agreement with Playboy and took steps to terminate the agreement with PlayBev before PlayBev informed Playboy of the bankruptcy petition. Due to the automatic stay provisions of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code that prevent termination of PlayBev's contract without a Court order while PlayBev is subject to the bankruptcy, Playboy has complied with and will continue to observe and comply with the automatic stay provisions.

Playboy has filed a motion with the Bankruptcy Court seeking relief from automatic stay so that it can take action to terminate its agreement with PlayBev. The motion is set to be heard on July 27.

Any parties with questions concerning PlayBev or the current situation should direct them to PlayBev directly through normal business channels. Further, the positions of PlayBev and other parties concerning the bankruptcy are set forth in the papers filed by the parties with the Bankruptcy Court, 350 South Main Street, 3rd Floor, Salt Lake City, Utah, www.utb.uscourts.gov. These papers may also be obtained from PlayBev or from PlayBev's counsel, Kenneth L. Cannon, II, Durham Jones & Pinegar, 111 East Broadway, Suite 900, Salt Lake City, UT 84110-4050 (801.415.1000).
